

GENERAL CONDITIONS of the activities of the ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM

Responsibilities

The ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM, organised by the INTERNATIONAL POLAR FOUNDATION, is a place for exchange and debate. The ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM cannot, under any circumstances, be held responsible for the words used, verbally or in writing, by the participants during the activities. The speakers and authors invited bear sole responsibility for the words they use and the content they offer.

Similarly, the members of the INTERNATIONAL POLAR FOUNDATION do not jeopardise the foundation's obligation to respect neutrality in any way by participating in the activities of the ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM.

Cancellation

The INTERNATIONAL POLAR FOUNDATION reserves the right to cancel the event, particularly if there are not enough registrations, or in the case of force majeure, unavailability of speakers or other parties. In this case, the sponsorships will be refunded or credited against a future activity.

Privacy protection

As regards registration for the activities, the ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM will collect personal information such as first name and surname, address, email address, job title/profession, telephone number, company name, company address and VAT number. At this point, the participant gives his/her unequivocal consent for this personal data to be processed in accordance with the conditions mentioned in this provision. The personal data transmitted by the participant will be processed in accordance with the GDPR and the provisions of the law of 8 December 1992 on the protection of privacy in personal data processing.

Permission for publication

Unless indicated otherwise, you give your permission for photos personally identifying you to be published on the website and/or in the INTERNATIONAL POLAR FOUNDATION publications.

Dispute resolution

In the event of a dispute, the ARCTIC FUTURES SYMPOSIUM shall give priority to dialogue and mediation.

However, if no solution can be found, Belgian law shall apply and all disputes shall be settled before the courts and tribunals of Brussels.
